Lowcountry Voices (LCV), Nathan L. Nelson, director, returns for its 11th season, continuing to enchant audiences with their captivating performances. This incredible community performing arts organization, based in the vibrant city of North Charleston, attracts talented individuals from all corners of the region. With a diverse repertoire that spans across various genres, LCV showcases a remarkable emphasis on African-American music, including the soul-stirring sounds of Black gospel, spirituals, and jazz, deeply rooted in the rich heritage of the South Carolina Lowcountry.

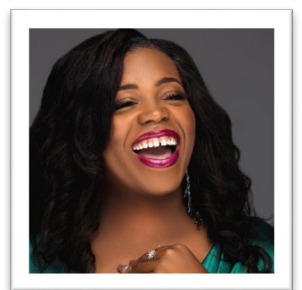

Elder Javetta Palmer Campbell is the 8th child born to Jacob and Lonnie Palmer. She is a member of Christian Praise & Worship Center, the former Reformed House of God, in the Accabee Section of North Charleston, SC. Under the pastoral leadership of her mother, Javetta serves as Praise and Worship leader and Church Secretary. A lover of the word of God, Javetta was licensed and ordained to preach the Gospel of Christ in 2007. Humbled by the doors that God has opened, her prayer is that God is always pleased with her and that someone's life is changed through her obedience. Javetta is married to Timothy A. Campbell, who is also her manager, and together they have six children and six grandchildren.

Jason Singleton is the CEO of SingleTone Music Group, the Founder of Jason Singleton & Friends, and is an Artist, Musician, Preacher and Music Educator. Minister Jason J. Singleton is a member of Destiny Worship Center in North Charleston, South Carolina under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Larry D. Goss Sr. Jason Singleton & Friends is an aggregation of singers whose mission is to spread inspiration and share The Gospel of Jesus Christ through Gospel Music. A native of Charleston, SC, Jason is dedicated to preserving and modernizing the rich Gullah-Geechee culture and sound through Gospel music.

Ashley Hale, hailing from the heart of Charleston, South Carolina, is no stranger to the world of Performing Arts. From the age of 5 Ashley's vocal journey commenced within the nurturing confines of her church. Her voice, strong and resonant, carried her to both domestic and foreign territory, gracing renowned venues across Italy, Germany, Spain, Paris, and beyond. Her vocal dexterity and resounding message of "Hope" sets her apart, leaving audiences uplifted, spirited, and awakened. Ashley serves as Praise and Worship leader for Life Center Fellowship Church.

Elder Mario Desaussure is an anointed psalmist who began singing at the tender age of 3, in the Alpha Omega Reformed House of God Church, under the leadership of his great-grandfather. He is an ordained Elder, a member of the REHAB Fellowship Choir and the Praise Team. Currently, he also serves as Worship Leader at St. James United Methodist Church in Alpharetta, GA. In 2020 Mario released his 1st single entitled, "All in Your Hands", written and produced by his brother, Shelton Desaussure. His EP project was released in March of this year. He and his brother are now working to complete his 1st CD project prayerfully to be released by the Spring/Summer of 2024.
